HAROLD KATZ...

When he purchased the 76ers in July 1981, he fulfilled the goal of a confirmed sports fanatic. He had been a 76ers fan for many years and he lived and died with team's successes and failures. As the sole owner of the local NBA franchise, his ambition was two fold—to win a championship with the team (which he did in 1982-83) and also to convert the operation into a profitable business (which he did last year). He has been an immense success in private industry. In 1972 he established a weight loss center in Willow Grove, Pa. which grew into Nutri/System, Inc., a publicly held company headquartered in the Philadelphia suburbs. He sold his interests in the firm earlier this year. Katz was born in Philadelphia (May 5, 1937) and was attending high school when his father passed away. Katz then assumed responsibility for operating the family grocery business where he received his first experience in sales, marketing and business management. Eventually he turned to other endeavors to develop his entrepreneurial ability, working as a life insurance salesman for several years and then becoming self-employed in marketing and advertising ventures until he established his weight loss firm. Katz, who is active in many charitable and philanthropic enterprises, lives in Huntingdon Valley, Pa.

JOHN NASH...

Elevated to the position of General Manager on June 25, 1986. Succeeds Pat Williams, who held the post for the previous 12 seasons, and becomes only the fourth G.M. in the club's history. Nash returned to the organization on July 28, 1981 as the team's Assistant General Manager and Business Manager. In the last five years with the Club, Nash has been involved in virtually every facet of the club's operation. He was the overseer of the marketing, group sales and ticket departments and also was directly involved in the radio and television broadcasts of the 76ers games. He not only helped in the contract negotiations, but also served as color man for radio and TV in varying degrees of frequency over the last five years. Nash came to the 76ers after a six year stint as executive secretary of the Big Five Basketball program, but his experience also includes posts with the 76ers, the Flyers, the Eagles, Univ. of Pennsylvania, Blazers, the Spectrum and Atlantic City Race Track. In his previous stay with the Sixers, John worked in the team's ticket office before becoming the Club's group sales director in 1969-70 and 1970-71 for two seasons. Nash is a graduate of St. Joseph's University. He has six children and resides in Gradyville, PA., with his wife the former Ann Raley.

JACK SWOPE...

Named as the 76ers Assistant General Manager on June 25, 1986. Stepped up to his new position when John Nash was named as the club's General Manager. In the business of sports where change is the norm, Swope has been a mainstay in the 76ers organization. Jack joined the Sixers in 1977 fresh out of Edinboro College where he majored in business. He started in group sales and was later named Group Sales Director. For the past four years Swope was the club's Marketing Director and since the 1984-85 season has been handling the team's game night promotions. Jack was born April 1, 1955 and resides in Erdenheim with his wife Debbie and their two children.

MATT GUOKAS...

Perfect example of an individual rising through the ranks to become the head coach of the 76ers on June 14, 1985. Previous career had included roles as player, broadcaster and assistant coach. In his first season as the Sixers pilot he guided the club to a 54-28 regular season mark, fourth best in the league last year. A remarkable coaching feat in light of the rash of injuries that plagued the team. Took his short-handed squad into post-season play and came within a field goal of advancing to the Eastern Conference Finals. Finished his playoff baptism with a 6-6 record. Started his NBA fling as a first round Sixers draft choice out of St. Joseph's in 1966-67 and performed on club's NBA title team of 1966-76. Played 4-1/2 seasons with the Sixers before moving on to Chicago, Cincinnati, Kansas City, Houston, Buffalo, back to Chicago and back to Kansas City to close out a 10-year career in which he scored 4285 points in 16,603 minutes in 735 games. Returned to the Sixers in 1977 to join the team's broadcasting crew. Then in December 1981 he stepped out of the broadcast booth to become Billy Cunningham's assistant as the replacement for Chuck Daly. In his tenure as Billy's aide, he demonstrated his knowledge of the game and an ability to teach the pros. Did extensive studies of plays and strategy of Sixers foes and was given much credit for the team's preparation, especially during 1982-83 championship season. Directed team's rookie camp and Princeton League team in summers of 1983 and 1984. Had brief flings at head coaching berth when Cunningham was ejected from games and also in 1983-84 when Cunningham missed game due to illness. Started college career at Miami (Fla.) U. but left after freshman season to go to St. Joseph's where he set assist records both at the college and in Quaker City tourney. Selected MVP in Christman tourney and in Mid Atlantic Conference. Son of Matt, Sr., who played on championship Warriors of 1946-47 after being center on Hawks' famed Mighty Mites team. Born Feb. 25, 1944, resides in Cherry Hill, N.J. with wife Barbara, son Christopher and daughter Robyn.

JIM LYNAM...

In his second season as assistant coach with the 76ers. Was named on June 17, 1985 to fill the spot created with the promotion of Matt Guokas to head coach. Is now Guokas' senior aide and right hand man with the departure of former assistant Jack McMahon to Golden State. Has directed the Sixers' Princeton Summer League squad the last two seasons. Lynam joined the Sixers with four years of pro coaching experience, two as Jack Ramsay's assistant at Portland in 1981-82 and two as head coach of the San Diego - Los Angeles Clippers in 1983-84 and 1984-85. In his first season as pilot of the Clippers he posted a 30-52 record and the following year was replaced after 61 games with a 22-39 mark. His college head coaching career covered 11 years (158-118 record for a .572 winning percentage) including two seasons at Fairfield University (23-29), five at American University (70-61) and three at St. Joseph's University (65-28). Lynam's .699 winning percentage at St. Joe's is the second best in the school's history behind Jack Ramsay's .765 mark. During his stint with the Hawks, the team made two NIT appearances and a Mid-East Regional Runner-Up finish in the 1981 NCAA tournament. Played three seasons at St. Joe's averaging 12.2 ppg. A member of the St. Joe's and Big Five Hall of Fame. Born September 15, 1941 and resides in Media, PA. with his wife Kay, two daughters and one son.

HISTORY OF THE 76ERS

Professional basketball in its modern phase has had two stages in this city. The first section comprised the career of the Warriors between 1946 and 1962 and saw two titles come here — 1947 when the immortal Joe Fulks hit his heights and 1956 in Tom Gola's rookie season.

The Warriors were transferred to San Francisco after the 1961-62 campaign. Irv Kosloff and the late Ike Richman, however, teamed to purchase the Syracuse Nats in the spring of 1963 and bring the franchise here. The team was renamed 76ers and Dolph Schayes was named coach for the 1963-64 season.

Dolph piloted the team for three seasons and in his final year he steered the 76ers to the Eastern Division title aided by the addition of Wilt Chamberlain who came in January 1965 in a deal with San Francisco. Alex Hannum became the coach in 1966-67 and led the team to a 68-13 record and the NBA title.

Hannum steered the team to its third straight Eastern Division title in 1967-68, and then the Jack Ramsay regime began. Ramsay had been the club's GM during Hannum's two years as coach and when Hannum left after the 1967-68 season, Jack assumed the coaching duties—along with his GM chores. He didn't have Chamberlain who was traded to Los Angeles, but still managed to finish second in the division that year.

Ramsay relinquished the GM role to Don DeJardin just before the start of the 1970-71 season and confined his efforts to coaching for two seasons. For 1972-73 Roy Rubin succeeded Ramsay until the All-Star game break when Kevin Loughery supplanted him. Gene Shue was named coach on June 15, 1973 and started the club's resurgence in the 1973-74 campaign. Pat Williams became the club's GM in August 1974. Fitz Eugene Dixon, Jr. purchased the club from Kosloff in May 1976. Julius Erving was secured on October 21, 1976 and the team won the Atlantic Division title and lost in the NBA finals.

On November 4, 1977, Billy Cunningham replaced Shue as coach and led team to Atlantic Division title and to the Eastern Conference finals. In 1979-80 and 1981-82 Billy piloted the team to the NBA finals and in 1982-83 to the NBA championship. Lou Scheinfeld was appointed president of the club on January 30, 1980, and relinquished duties on June 1, 1981. Harold Katz purchased the club July 9, 1981, the sale was approved on Sept. 21 by the NBA and became final on Sept. 24, 1981. Matt Goukas replaced Cunningham as coach on June 14, 1985. John Nash replaced Pat Williams as GM on June 25, 1986.

JABBAR (NEE ALCINDOR) BEST AT TURNING TEAM AROUND

Since the territorial draft was abolished, the No. 1 draft choices have had varying success in turning teams around. The best was Lew Alcindor (now Kareem Abdul Jabbar) when Milwaukee had a 27-55 record in 1968-69 and then went to 56-26 in Alcindor's first year for a rise of 29. Next best was Elvin Hayes with plus 22. Mychal Thompson has the dubious distinction of being the No. 1 pick to have his team post a worse record, Portland going from 58-24 to 45-37 in his rookie campaign. The only one to win an NBA title was Magic Johnson with a plus 13 in the 1979-80 season.

BIRD TOPS IN OVERALL CONTRIBUTION

Someone figured out the best way to measure a player's overall contribution to his team is by adding his scoring, rebounding and assist averages and subtracting his turnover average. Under this system in 1985-86, Larry Bird was the league leader with 39.4 followed by Dominique Wilkins 37.6, Alex English 35.8, Adrian Dantley 35.5, Akeem Olajuwon 34.1, Magic Johnson 33.5, Moses Malone 33.3, Charles Barkley 32.3, Isiah Thomas 31.5, Purvis Short 31.4, Kareem Jabbar 30.4 and Ralph Sampson 30.0.

JOHN GABRIEL...

In his second season as Assistant Coach with the 76ers, Gabriel is officially the newest member of the Sixers coaching staff, but also continues to handle the team's video taping responsibilities as he has for the four previous seasons. Will take on a more vital role on the Sixers staff with the departure of assistant coach Jack McMahon to Golden State. Oversees the taping of college and pro games around the country for scouting purposes. With the influx of cable and satellite dishes, it is not unusual for Gabriel to tape 100 basketball games a month during the season. Handled the team's scouting college prospects in Portsmouth and Hawaii, last year filling in for the ailing McMahon. Gabriel started his coaching career at Trinity High School in Harrisburg after a four year playing stint at Kutztown State. Has worked the last four summers assisting the Sixers staff at the annual Rookie Camp, as well as the Princeton Summer League. Gabriel's video talents extend also to off-court activities as he creates and produced all of the club's promotional commercials. Born on February 17, 1956 and resides in Wilmington, DE., Single.

SIXERS OWN 17 CHOICE PICKS

From 1987 through 1990 the 76ers have six extra draft choices in addition to owning all but one of their own. They have Washington's 1st pick in 1988 (Tom Sewell) and 2nd round picks of New Jersey in 1987 (Reggie Johnson); San Antonio in 1988 (Mark McNamara); Detroit in 1989 and 1990 (Earl Cureton). They also have Indiana's 3rd in 1987 (Leo Rautins). Thus in the 1987-1990 period they own four 1st round picks and eight 2nd round picks and five third round picks. They owe one of their 1988 1st round picks to Washington. They also traded their No. 1 pick in 1989 to Seattle.

Suffered a pulled stomach muscle on 12/3/85 vs Detroit which sidelined him for 12 games . . . Other than in his two clashes against the 76ers, Philadelphia fans may be familiar with Vranes from his national TV commercial for Ivory soap . . . Wife Linda and three children.

BARKLEY PACES 2-PT. FG PERCENTAGE

Pat Riley would like to see 2-point field goal percentage in the NBA stats. Nowadays the league only lists 3-point field goal percentage and overall field goal percentage, combining 2 and 3-point field goal attempts. We took all 39 players in the league who attempted 50 3-point field goals or more and subtracted those totals from their overall totals to get their 2-point average. The leader of this group was Charles Barkley with a 59.8 percentage. The biggest difference was achieved by Mike Evans of Detroit who had a 6.7 differential, going from 42.5 overall to 49.2 for just 2-pointers. HISTORY OF NBA POINT DIFFERENTIAL

The chart below shows the point differential in all 22,234 regular season games played in the NBA since its origin in the 1946-47 season. It shows the number of times each point difference occurred and also what percentage of all games played, ended with that difference, as researched by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows at least one game ended in a difference from 1 through 54 and that a two point difference has occurred the most times (1644). There have been 15 games with point difference in the 50's and 60's including the March 19, 1972 game in which Los Angeles beat Golden State 162-99 for the largest margin of victory (63 points) in NBA history. More than one of every 4 games are decided by 4 points or less and over 49% of all games end with a margin of 8 points or less.

CLUB NICKNAME

The late Walter Stahlberg, of West Collingswood, New Jersey, won a contest to name the club in 1963. The choice of the club's nickname was announced on August 6, 1963. There were almost 500 different suggestions among the entries and Stahlberg was one of several who picked the 76ers. However, his accompanying 25-word explanation was deemed the best by the judges, and he and his wife received an all-expense trip to the West Coast to see the 76ers play San Francisco.

TITLE ROUND FAILURES IN FOLLOWING SEASONS

Five NBA teams failed to make the playoffs the year after they were in the championship finals. The 1968-69 Boston team was the only one to win the title and then fail to make the playoffs the following year. The others were St. Louis 1960-61, failing in 1961-62; San Francisco 1963-64, failing in 1964-65 after selling Wilt Chamberlain to the 76ers, Milwaukee 1973-74, failing in 1974-75; and Phoenix 1975-76, failing in 1976-77.

BARRY OWNS A NOVEL TRIPLE

Rick Barry, current play by play announcer for WTBS, holds the unusual distinction of being the only player to capture scoring titles in the NBA (with San Francisco in 1966-67), ABA (with Oakland in 1968-69) and the NCAA (with The University of Miami in 1964-65).

12 EX-PLAYERS SERVE AS COACHES

Of the NBA's 23 coaches, 12 are former NBA or ABA players (Don Nelson, Dave Wohl, Matt Guokas, Don Chaney, Pat Riley, Doug Moe, George Karl, Lenny Wilkens, Bob Weiss, Doug Collins, Kevin Loughery and K.C. Jones). The other 11 were college head or assistant coaches.

No team in NBA history has gone through a season without losing at least two games in succession. The teams that had only one such streak were Boston in 1984-85, 1980-81, 1974-75 and 1972-73. Teams that only had 2-game losing streaks twice were 76ers 1982-83, Boston 1981-82, and 1985-86, Milwaukee 1980-81 and Golden State 1975-76; Minneapolis 1949-50; Syracuse 1949-50. Those with three were 1971-72 Los Angeles, 1960-61 St. Louis and 1979-80 Boston; 4 2-game streaks were accomplished by 1962-63 Boston and 1949-50 Rochester; five for the 1971-72 and 1969-70 Milwaukee teams; 1966-67 Boston and 1948-49 Minneapolis. It was done 6 times by 1963-64 Cincinnati, 7 times by 1983-84 Los Angeles, 1980-81 Phoenix, 1972-73 Capital and 8 times by 1976-77 76ers.

NBA PLAYOFF WINNING MARGINS — 1946-47 THRU 1985-86

Since the origin of the NBA in the 1946-47 season, there have been 1456 playoff games with a total point difference between winner and loser of 14,916 points. That is an average of 10.24 points per game according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows the number of times each point difference has occurred in playoff history. These totals include 10 special playoff games which were played to break ties in regular season final standings and, thus, determine playoff opponents. These games took place during the 1947-48, 1949-50, 1952-53, 1955-56 and 1956-57 playoffs.

FITZSIMMONS AND LOUGHERY HAVE COACHED MOST CLUBS

Cotton Fitzsimmons and Kevin Loughery hold the distinction of having been the head coach of the most NBA teams with five jobs each. Cotton did it with Phoenix, Atlanta, Buffalo, Kansas City and San Antonio, while Loughery piloted teams at Philly, New Jersey, Atlanta, Chicago and Washington. Counting his new job at Indiana, Jack Ramsay has had four jobs as did Alex Hannum, Paul Seymour, Stan Albeck, Tom Nissalke and Bill Van Breda Kolff. Actually 42 different men have coached more than one team, 43 if you count George Karl at Golden State this year.

LOWS SINCE 24-SECOND CLOCK

Since the 24-second clock was introduced into the NBA in 1954-55 season, the lowest scoring regular season game was a 62-57 victory by Boston over Milwaukee on February 27, 1955 at Providence. In this game the floor was atop ice and the moisture came through the boards to make running hazardous. The total of 119 is the low and so are the 57 points by Milwaukee (now the Atlanta Hawks). The lowest scoring playoff game found Ft. Wayne beating Syracuse, 74-71, April 7, 1955 at Indianapolis. The total of 145 points and the 71 by Syracuse are the lows. Buffalo scored 63 vs. Milwaukee Oct. 21, 1972 and Chicago 65 at Phoenix, Mar. 6, 1975; Cleveland 67, Nov. 19, 1977, Dallas 68, Feb. 4, 1981, and Phoenix 68, Mar. 8, 1981, and Indiana 64 at New York, December 10, 1985.

FIELD GOAL ANALYSIS 1985-86

Making more field goals than its opponent can mean victory to an NBA team in 3 out of every 4 games played. The team which had more field goals won 674 times and lost only 213 times for a winning percentage of .760, according to records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. An equal number of field goals were scored by both teams on 56 occasions. Boston, Milwaukee and the LA Lakers were best at winning games while outscoring their opponents from the field as all three won over 90% of such games. New York, Seattle and the LA Clippers had the most trouble. Winning games while being outscored in field goals was very tough. Only the 76ers and Boston could win even half of those games. New York, Indiana and Cleveland had the most trouble winning with fewer field goals. Complete figures follow:

Many other NBA teams did not have as dramatic results. However, the league wide percentage was a solid .650 as the team with the most free throws won 583 times and lost 314 times, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. An equal number of free throws were made by each team on 46 occasions. New York, Golden State and the LA Clippers had the most trouble winning with more free throws. The teams which won most often when making fewer free throws were Boston, Milwaukee and the LA Lakers, while Phoenix, Chicago and the 76ers had the most trouble winning with fewer free throws. DOMINANCE INDEX RATINGS

Several years ago Sports Illustrated Magazine devised a Novel Dominance Index with the idea of showing via points how much a team dominated a season. To secure the figure for each team, the championship team's average margin of victory is divided by the margin of victory of the second best team. In some cases, the team with the best win and loss record didn't have the best margin of victory. All this deals with the regular season action and, naturally, there are many cases where the team with the best regular season record failed to win the playoffs. The best team according to this system is the 1955-56 Warriors which had a 4.3 victory margin against an 0.7 differential for next best Boston. The best margin of victory was 12.3 for Los Angeles in 1971-72.

LENGTH OF NBA's 1985-86 GAMES

This chart shows how long it took to play the league's 943 games in the 1985-86 season. For each team it shows the total minutes of its games, home, away and overall; the length of a game broken down into hours (1:55.9 means 1 hr. 55.9 mins.) and the fastest and slowest games each team played. The chart shows Boston had the fastest games on its home court (2:03.7), and the Los Angeles Clippers (2:03.8) the fastest away and Dallas overall (2:05.5). Utah was the slowest team at home (2:11.7), and Seattle away (2:14.5) and Atlanta overall (2:10.8). A triple overtime game Seattle at Chicago was the longest (3:09), while the fastest game of 1:46 was Washington at the Lakers. For the trivia fans adding all the 943 games together would give you a total of 2015 hours and 34 minutes. The league average was 2:08.2 compared to 2:07.6 in 1984-85.

ALL-TIME ANALYSIS OF NBA PLAYERS

Since the 1946-47 season there have been 1967 different players who have appeared in at least one NBA game. A thorough analysis of their careers has been done by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The study turns up some interesting facts. The 1967 players have played a total of 7379 seasons which averages 3.75 years per player. They have played a total of 435,897 games which averages 221.61 games per career. These players have scored 4,699,311 points which averages 2389.08 points per career. Thus, the average NBA career spans about 3 3/4 seasons, 222 games and 2389 points. 325 players performed in the NBA during the 1985-86 season, including 62 playing their rookie season in the league.

A WILT RECORD THAT STILL STANDS

Everyone is familiar with the league record 100 points that Wilt Chamberlain scored in 1962 versus the Knicks, but it is not as widely known that he also holds the league record for assists (21) by a center. He achieved this figure Feb. 2, 1968 vs. Detroit. Maurice Cheeks equalled that figure to tie Wilt for the club mark on Oct. 30, 1982 vs. the Nets, but of course Cheeks is a guard.

DETROIT BEST IN CLOSE GAMES

Detroit was No. 1 in the league in playing games with 3-point or under final scores, posting the most games (17) and the most wins (12) in a 12-5 slate. The only other double figure victors in this category were Utah (11) and the Sixers and Washington (10). Boston was by far the leader in games decided by 10 points or more with a 40-3 record. The LA Clippers were the worst at 6-34.

ASSISTS ANALYSIS—1985-86

Being able to get the ball to the right man at the right time and in the right place on the floor can often result in a good shot and good shots are what is necessary to win games in the NBA. Recording more assists in a game than your opponent can result in a win almost 3 out of every 4 games. Records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan show that the team with the most assists won 656 times and lost only 233 times for a percentage of .738. There were 54 games in which the teams recorded an equal number of assists. Milwaukee, Boston, and the LA Lakers compiled the best records in this department of play, while Chicago, Indiana and New York experienced the most trouble. Winning games while recording fewer assists was not an easy task. The 76ers, LA Lakers and Boston were the only teams that could win half of such games. Indiana, Sacramento and New York had the most trouble winning with fewer assists. Complete figures follow:

REBOUNDS ANALYSIS—1985-86

Rebounding has always been an important part of basketball at all levels of competition. That holds true in the NBA where the winning team out-rebounds its opponent more than 2 out of every 3 games. Records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan, reveal that the team with the most rebounds won 608 times and lost 298 times for a percentage of .671. There were 37 games in which both teams had an equal number of rebounds. The best percentage belonged to the LA Lakers. Denver and Boston, New York, Golden State and Phoenix had the most trouble winning games when securing more rebounds. Winning games while being out-rebounded proved tough to do with only 4 teams (Boston, Milwaukee, the 76ers and Atlanta) able to win more than half of such games. Indiana, Chicago and Seattle had the most trouble winning when out-rebounded. Of note is the fact that some teams without good won-lost records, quite often won the battle of the boards. New Jersey, Chicago, Indiana and Phoenix fit that category. Complete records follow:

More Rebounds	W	L	Pct.	Less Rebounds	W	L	Pct.
LA Lakers	46	3	.939	Boston	12	6	.667

RODGERS AND KILLILEA LEAD ASSISTANT COACHES IN SERVICE

An analysis of the longevity rates of assistant coaches from 1972-73 to 1985-86 shows in that 14 year period there have been 408 assistant coaching jobs occupied by 155 different individuals for an average career of 3.9 seasons. The 1972-73 season was the first in which assistant coaches totals reached double figures for the league (14). The previous year there were only 8 as the pre-1970 trend either was no assistant coach or at most one. Nowadays some teams have as many as three. The leaders for this period are Jim Rodgers and John Killilea with 13 years each, but of course Jimmy will take over the undisputed lead this coming season. Other high totals are Jack McMahon and Bernie Bickerstaff, 12, Al Bianchi 11, and Bill Bertka, Frank Hamblen and Phil Johnson 9.

NBA WINNING MARGINS—1985-86

The average margin of victory is on the rise again, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. During the 1985-86 season the average was 10.79 points which is a substantial increase from the 10.48 average of the 1984-85 season, and represents the largest average margin of victory since the 1973-74 season. It also breaks the up-one-year, down-the-next-year pattern of recent times. The total margin of victory for all 943 regular season NBA games added up to 10,175 points. The largest margin was a 58 pointer (5th all time high). Almost 1/4 of all games had a margin of 4 points or less and nearly half (48.1%) had a margin of 8 points or less. This season there were 29 games with a margin of 30 or more while there were only 15 such games during the 1984-85 season.

MAGIC NUMBER ONE IN POINT PRODUCTION

Someone suggested that the MVP is the one who is responsible for the most points in a game. A player would get 2 points for each assist. Then add all the points he scored to the points for assists and divide the total by the number of games he played to get his average points produced a game. Under this system Dominique Wilkins was not the king, but Magic Johnson was.

	Points	Assists	Points			Points	Assists	Points
			Accounted for	Avg.				Accounted for	Avg.

WINNING WAYS — 1985-86

As has been the case in previous years, it is very important to get a good start in an NBA game and also to have a strong finish. Research by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan, indicates that the team which leads at the end of the first period won 66% of the time. However, 7 teams won less than 60% of such games. Boston, the 76ers and the LA Lakers were best at winning games which they were trailing at the end of the first quarter, while San Antonio, Indiana and New York had the most trouble coming back after falling behind early. Winning the fourth quarter also produced a victory about 66% of the time. That percentage could have been higher but on some occasions the winner had a solid lead in the final quarter and turned the game over to its bench to finish up. That point is illustrated by the fact that the 76ers, Atlanta, Boston, and the LA Lakers all won 19 or more games in which they lost the final quarter. The playoffs were similar to the regular season. The winning team won the first quarter over 59% of the time and won the fourth quarter more than 65% of the time. The last quarter percentage could have been much higher but on at least 14 occasions the winner had a solid lead and coasted in the last quarter. The totals follow:

Regular Season (943 games)					Playoffs (68 games)
	1st Qt.		4th Qt.			1st Qt.		4th Qt.
